THE PEAKS AND GLACIERS

La Thuile region hosts the highest mountains in Europe. Mt. Blanc, Grandes Jorasses, Testa del Rutor are some of the 4.000 m peaks you'll almost touch with hands.

JOIN OUR KEY FACTORS

- The power of pristine Alpine nature
- The high mountain and natural trail riding experience
- A functioning mtb school and bike services
- The restoring capacity and traditional flavor of a Valdaostan mountain village

NATURAL TRAIL AREA ACCESS

Both lift ride and pedaled uphill are extremely scenic and satisfying

- Selected routes for every riding level, style and expectation, including families
- Challenging climbs and specific e-bike routes
- Adventurous itineraries beyond the bike park boundaries

"SOME OF THE TRAILS BECAME LEGENDARY WITH THE ENDURO WORLD SERIES."

Winner of the 2016 Enduro Event of the Year (Pinkbike MTB Awards), La Thuile offers a unique variety of long trails and mountain paths crossing unspoilt high Alpine meadows, larch hoods and authentic rural houses and villages.

La Thuile's Natural Bike Area is located in a high alpine environment and it can be divided into two areas.

The high zone, between 2.400 and 1.900 m, it's characterized by a smooth and linear slope gradient with fast rolling natural singletracks. It's an open meadows environment with some gnarly big rock slabs and sudden drops.

The lower zone, from 1.900 to 1.400 m, is where the slope gradient changes dramatically as you get in the woods. Here the trails get steep, rooty, dusty, off camber and with a lot of turns.

La Thuile Natural Bike Area offers some of the most long, technical and demanding trails of Europe that coexist with the calmness of the surrounding nature and villages.

THE BIKE AREA IN NUMBERS

- Over 220 km of trails and mtb routes
- 2 chair lifts
- 14 exclusive mtb trails
- 3 lodges along the trails
- 1 skill park area / mini dirt line / dual slalom course
- 1 Velosolutions permanent pump track
- 1 XC course
